JUDGE SOAKED THE COMPLAINING WITNESS

Trial of Parties to Neighborhood Row Ends Unexpectedly.

BILLY BLACK GETS IN AGAIN

Judge Crawford was faced with the difficulty this morning of settling a neighborhood row. The judge settled it all right, but the result was rather unexpected and resulted disastrously for the complaining witness. It seems that yesterday afternoon Mrs. Quineva Apodaca, hearing an unusual disturbance in a neighbor's house across the street from her home, thought she would go over and take a hand in the row. When she arrived she found Josie Moya fighting with her mother and sister. Mrs. Apodaca immediately proceeded to take a hand in the scrap. She grabbed Josie around the neck and hit a good sized chunk out of her arm. In return, Josie swatted her several times with her fist, which caused the Apodaca woman to flee from the scene.

It seems she didn't stop, either, until she found an officer and had Josie Moya arrested. The woman was placed in jail for the night, and this morning was arraigned in police court on the charge of fighting.

When the judge heard the evidence of both women, and saw where Mrs. Apodaca had chewed Mrs. Moya's arm, he turned the tables. He fined Mrs. Apodaca $10 for fighting and released Josie.

Billy Black in Again.

Billy Black, who only yesterday was fined $10 for being drunk and disorderly the night before and totting a gun, was run in again last night. Billy pawned the gun that got him into trouble the first time, and with the proceeds, took on a glorious jag. "Two bad," said the judge, in court this morning, "but I think that I'll give you ten days on the streets this time."

"That's good," replied Billy, as the officer took him back to jail.

Two Drunks Fined. Bernardino Garcia and Nicolas Bles, who were arrested yesterday afternoon by Policemen Knapp and Salazar, charged with being drunk and disorderly, were given ten days each on the streets in police court this morning.

Agent H. S. Lutz, of the Santa Fe, in this city, went to Santa Fe this morning to remain over Sunday with his family. Mr. Lutz will bring his family to this city about September 1.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y. The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.
